All interested individuals are encouraged to attend. Attendees will have an opportunity to ask questions and share ideas on how this program can be improved for the USVI community. Light refreshments will be provided.

The VIEDC Tax Incentive Program grants tax exemption benefits to eligible small to large businesses that conduct business in the Territory. The VIEDC is one of four entities under the USVIEDA.

USVIEDA Acting Chief Executive Officer Wayne L. Biggs, Jr.; VIEDC Director of Applications Margarita A. Benjamin; and VIEDC Director of Compliance Claude S.M. Gerard will lead the Town Hall Meeting with a discussion about the role of the VIEDC Tax Incentive Program in the Territory, the program's application process and the eligibility requirements, how the VIEDC Tax Incentive Program is administered and regulated, and how the program benefits the community and the USVI economy.

Other economic development practitioners from the USVIEDA will also be present to provide attendees with information about other USVIEDA programs and services.

For more information, please contact the VIEDC on St. Thomas at 340-714-1700, ext. 260, or send an email to Ja'Nelle Forbes at jforbes@usvieda.org.
