Elesa, loved plants and gardens," Watlington-Edwin said. In addition to tea, visitors can nourish their bodies with delicious pastries, sandwiches and salads.

Accessories — such as teacups, teapots, cloths and tea candles — are available for purchase, and the teahouse has free wifi, parking, and a choice of indoor or patio seating.

Artwork by local artists also is showcased at E's Garden Tea House. Roy Hansen's artwork is currently being featured, originals are for sale.

E's Garden Teahouse and Things is on Garden Street, a stone's throw from Main Street. The teahouse is open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday and 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Saturday. Space also is available for use by organizations or for private events during weekday evening and Sunday hours.
